	CHAPTER VI  SPECIAL CATEGORY VESSELS
	39. (1) For the purposes of this Chapter, the criteria and standards to identify any class or category of mechanically propelled inland vessels as special category vessels based on their design, construction, use, purpose, area of plying, source of energy or fuelling or any other criteria shall be such, as may be prescribed by the Central Government. (2) The requirements of construction, design, survey, registration, manning, qualification, competency, or the requirements in addition to those contained elsewhere in this Act shall be such as may be prescribed by the Central Government. (3) The identification of categories or class of mechanically propelled inland vessels as special category vessels, with reasons and purpose of the identification shall be in such manner as may be prescribed by the State Government.	Power to classify and categorise
	40. (1) The State Government shall appoint or authorise qualified officers for the purpose of performing duties and implementing the provisions of this Chapter. (2) On an application made by owner, operator or master of any mechanically propelled inland vessel in such form as may be prescribed by the State Government; any officer appointed under sub-section (1), on being satisfied that such vessel complies with the provisions of this Act and falls under the special category vessels as identified in this Chapter, and subject to such other conditions as may be prescribed by the State Government, may grant a certificate of fitness, in such form and content as may be prescribed by the State Government. (3) The State Government may, by recording the reasons thereof, refuse the grant of certificate of fitness in respect of an application made under sub-section (2).	Identification of vessels under this Chapter.
	41. (1) The safety features, gears and such other measures by which any mechanically propelled inland vessel, identified as special category vessel under this Chapter, shall comply with and be equipped in accordance with the categorisation of such vessel, shall be such as may be prescribed by the State Government. (2) The maximum carrying capacity of the vessel identified as special category vessel by specifying the safety waterline or the limits of load	Safety of passengers or service users.

	water line to keep them afloat, or such other criteria and conditions, other than those mentioned elsewhere in this Act for the safe voyage of such inland vessel, shall be such as may be prescribed by the State Government.
	42. (1) The surveyor may, other than for the purpose of survey, at any reasonable time, go on board any special category vessel, and inspect the respective vessel including the hull, equipment and machinery or any part or properties of such vessel. (2) The owner, operator, agent, master and any such person-in-charge of the special category vessel, shall make available all necessary facilities to the surveyor for inspection and survey, and all such information regarding the vessel and her machinery and equipment, or any part thereof, respectively, as the surveyor or such other officers may reasonably require. (3) While exercising powers under this Chapter, the surveyor shall not unnecessarily hinder the embarking or disembarking of the passengers or loading or unloading of cargo or any other functions which the special category vessel is assigned to use, or unnecessarily detain or delay her from proceeding on any voyage. (4) Any mechanically propelled inland vessel, not found to be in compliance with the provisions this Chapter, shall be detained or removed from the inland waters with immediate effect until the vessel complies with the requirements mandated under this Chapter.	Inspection of vessel.
	43. (1) If any special category vessel does not comply with the provisions as provided under this Act or the rules made thereunder, the State Government may issue notice to the owner or operator or master or any person in-charge of such vessel, for rectifying the non-compliance. (2) In case of continuance of non-compliance by the owner or operator or master or any person in-charge of the special category vessel even after receipt of the notice issued under sub-section (1), the State Government may, after providing an opportunity of being heard and for reasons to be recorded in writing, suspend or cancel the certificate of fitness issued to such vessel under this Chapter. (3) If the certificate of fitness of a special category vessel has been suspended or cancelled under sub-section (2), then such vessel shall cease to operate till the suspension is revoked, or in the event of cancellation, shall cease to operate till a new certificate of fitness is granted.	Suspension or cancellation of certificate of fitness.

	CHAPTER VII
	NAVIGATION, SAFETY AND SIGNALS
	44. (1) The specifications and requirements of signals and equipment based on classification and categorisation of mechanically propelled vessels, to be complied with by such vessels shall be such as may be prescribed by the Central Government. (2) The fog and distress signals to be carried and used, the steering and sailing rules to be complied with and the different protocols for exhibition and display of different standards of lights, shapes and signals, by any mechanically propelled vessel plying in inland waters shall be such as may be prescribed by the Central Government. (3) The owner or master of every mechanically propelled vessel, while in the inland water limit shall comply with the rules made under sub-sections (1) and (2), and shall not carry or exhibit any lights or shapes or use any fog or distress signals, other than that required to be exhibited under this Chapter or rules made thereunder.	Lights and signals.
	45.(1) Every mechanically propelled vessel shall adopt necessary measures to prevent collision and to ensure safe navigation through inland waters. (2) If any damage to person or property arises in the inland water limit due to non-observance of any of the rules made under this Chapter by any mechanically propelled vessel, the damage shall be deemed to have been occasioned by the wilful default of the person in-charge of such vessel at that time, unless it is shown to the satisfaction of the Court that the circumstances of the case demanded deviance from the applicable rules.	Obligation to ensure safe navigation.
	46. The master of a mechanically propelled vessel, while in the inland water limit, on finding or encountering a dangerous derelict or any other hazard to navigation in the inland waterways, shall immediately send a signal to indicate the danger or distress, or any such information to other mechanically propelled vessels in the vicinity and to the concerned State Government: Provided that no fees or charges shall be levied on any mechanically propelled vessels, in using any device for communicating any information under this section.	Distress signal.
	47. (1) The master of any mechanically propelled vessel, while in the inland water limit, who has received any signal of distress from any vessel or aircraft within the inland water limit, shall proceed immediately to the assistance of the persons in distress by acknowledging the receipt of such signal to the vessel in distress. (2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), the master of a mechanically propelled vessel shall be released from the obligation to	Assistance to vessels in distress and persons in distress.

	render assistance as provided in the said sub-section, if he is unable to do so, or in the special circumstances of the case, considers it unreasonable to act as provided in the said sub-section, or if the requirement for assistance is being complied with by other vessels, or the assistance is no longer required. (3) The master of any mechanically propelled vessel, while in the inland water limit, shall render assistance to every person found in danger of being lost in the inland waters. (4) The master of any mechanically propelled inland vessel may abstain from complying with sub-section (3), if in his judgment, he is unable to or, in the special circumstances of the case, such assistance may not be rendered without serious danger to his vessel, or to the persons on board and; in such event shall inform the respective authorities regarding his inability to comply with this Section.
	48. (1) The class or category of mechanically propelled inland vessels to be equipped with life saving appliances, fire detection and extinguishing appliances and communication appliances shall be such as may be prescribed by the Central Government. (2) The owner, operator or master of all mechanically propelled inland vessels shall comply with the requirements of life saving appliances, fire detection and extinguishing appliances and communication appliances as specified in sub-section (1). (3) The surveyor shall inspect the mechanically propelled inland vessel on receipt of an application from the owner, operator or master of a mechanically propelled inland vessel, in such form and manner as may be prescribed by the State Government; and may, on being satisfied that the vessel is complying with the provisions of this Chapter and the rules made thereunder, issue a certificate of life saving appliances, fire prevention and extinguishing appliances and communication appliances. (4) The State Government may appoint or authorise such officers as surveyors to inspect and ensure that the mechanically propelled inland vessels comply with the applicable requirements specified in sub-section (1). (5) A surveyor may, at any reasonable time, other than for the purpose of survey, enter and inspect any mechanically propelled inland vessel for ensuring that such vessel is properly provided with life saving and fire appliances in conformity with the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder. (6) If the surveyor finds that the mechanically propelled inland vessel is	Life saving, fire safety and communication appliances.

	not so provided with life saving and fire appliances in conformity with the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder, surveyor shall issue a notice to the master or owner or operator in writing pointing out the deficiency, and also pointing out the remedy, which in his opinion is required to be complied with. (7) Any mechanically propelled inland vessel that has been issued with a notice as provided in sub-section (6) shall not proceed to conduct any voyage unless the owner complies with the said notice and report such compliance to the surveyor appointed or authorised by the State Government.

	49. (1) The Central Government shall, by notification, designate the list of chemicals, any ingredients or substance carried as bunker or as cargo, or any substance in any form discharged from any mechanically propelled inland vessel, as pollutants. (2) The owner or master of any mechanically propelled inland vessel shall discharge or dispose of the sewage and garbage in accordance with the Rules as may be prescribed by the Central Government. (3) No mechanically propelled inland vessel shall cause pollution by discharging or dumping of pollutants designated under sub-section (1): Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall apply to the discharge dump or emission of such oil or oily mixture, hazardous chemical or obnoxious substance or any other pollutant, as the case may be, from a mechanically propelled inland vessel for the purpose of securing the safety of any mechanically propelled inland vessel, preventing damage to another mechanically propelled inland vessel, cargo or saving of life at inland water.	Chemicals, etc., to be designated as pollutants
	50. (1) The standards of construction and equipment of the mechanically propelled inland vessels to ensure compliance with the requirements of this Chapter shall be such as may be prescribed by the Central Government. (2) The State Government shall appoint or authorise such officers to ensure construction and, the installation and maintenance of equipment of all mechanically propelled inland vessels, issue the Prevention of Pollution Certificate in compliance with this Chapter. (3) All mechanically propelled inland vessels, which have been constructed and equipped in compliance with this Chapter shall be issued	Prevention of Pollution Certificate.

	with a prevention of pollution certificate in such form, validity and content as may be prescribed by the Central Government. (4) All mechanically propelled inland vessels shall carry on board a valid prevention of pollution certificate and shall furnish the same on demand by concerned authorities appointed or authorised under this Chapter.
	51.(1) The conditions for construction, use and maintenance of reception facilities for the containment of pollution and removal of pollutants arising from spillage or discharge arising from mechanically propelled inland vessels at all cargo terminals or passenger terminals shall be such as may be prescribed by the Central Government. (2) The owner or operator of all cargo terminals or passenger terminals shall provide reception facilities to discharge oil, oily mixture, hazardous chemicals, sewage or obnoxious substances at such cargo or passenger terminal, as the case may be, in compliance of sub-section (1). (3) The owner or operator of all cargo terminals or passenger terminals, providing reception facilities shall receive charges, at such rates as may be prescribed by the State Government. (4) For the purposes of minimising the pollution already caused, or for preventing the imminent threat of pollution, the Central Government or such other officer appointed by the State Government may, by order in writing, direct the owner or operator of cargo or passenger terminal to provide or arrange for the provision of such pollution containment equipment and pollutant removing materials, at such cargo and passenger terminal as may be specified in such order. (5) The owner or operator of the passenger or cargo terminal shall submit a report of compliance to the Central Government or such other officer appointed under sub-section (4), in such form as may be prescribed by the State Government. (6) The owner, operator or master of any mechanically propelled vessel used or plying within inland waters, shall discharge the pollutants at the port reception facilities in such manner as may be prescribed by the State Government.	Reception facilities and containment of pollution.
	52. (1) The State Government may, by notification, authorise or appoint any surveyor or any person as officer, to inspect any cargo or passenger terminal lying within its respective jurisdiction. (2) Any surveyor or any person authorised or appointed under this Chapter in this behalf may, at any reasonable time, enter and inspect any cargo or passenger terminal to—	Appointment of officers and power to inspect.

	(a) ensure that the provisions of this Chapter are complied with; (b) verify whether such cargo or passenger terminal is equipped for pollution containment and removal, in conformity with the order of the State Government or any of the rules made under this Chapter; and (c) satisfy himself of the adequacy of the measures taken to prevent pollution. (3) If the surveyor finds that the cargo or passenger terminal is not provided with the required pollution containment equipment and pollutant removing materials, he shall give a notice in writing pointing out the deficiencies and the recommended remedial measures to rectify such deficiency, that is identified during the inspection, to the owner or operator of such cargo or passenger terminal, as the case may be. (4) No owner or operator of such cargo or passenger terminal, as the case may be, served with the notice under sub-section (3), shall proceed with any work at such cargo or passenger terminal, until he obtains a certificate signed by the surveyor to the effect that the cargo or passenger terminal, is properly provided with the required pollution containment equipment and pollutant removing materials in conformity with the rules made under this Chapter.
	53. (1) The State Government shall direct the authorised officer appointed under Chapter XII to conduct investigation into incidents of pollution. (2) The State Government shall update the Central Government with such information or report of the Court, if so directed by such court, concerned on incidents of pollution that occurs within its jurisdiction.	Investigation into incidents of pollution .
	CHAPTER IX WRECK AND SALVAGE
	54. The owner, operator, master or person in charge of a vessel plying in inland waters shall not intentionally abandon, desert, dump, throw overboard or jettison the vessel or property or parts or cargo so as to cause wreck.	Prohibition against intentionally causing wreck.
	55. (1) The State Government may, by notification, appoint or authorise any officer to act as receiver of wreck within the respective jurisdiction. (2) The owner, operator, master or person in charge of vessel, property or cargo, which is wrecked, stranded or in distress or who has found any vessel, property or cargo wrecked, stranded or in distress in the inland waters, shall immediately inform, by all means of communication to the receiver of wreck in whose jurisdiction the vessel, property or cargo is	Receivers of wreck.

	found to be wrecked, stranded or in distress. (3) The owner of the wreck, whose property or cargo, is wrecked or stranded or is in distress in the inland waters shall also inform the receiver of wreck in writing of the finding thereof and of the marks by which such wreck can be distinguished, and in cases, where the wreck is in possession of any person other than the owner, operator, master or person in charge of vessel, property or cargo, such person shall deliver the same to the receiver of wreck.
	56. (1) The receiver of wreck who receives information of the wreck, shall record the information so received and immediately take necessary measures, as may be prescribed by the State Government. (2) If any vessel, irrespective of such vessel being registered or provided under this Act, or property or part of the said vessel, is wrecked, stranded or sunk in any inland water, is found to be or is likely to become an obstruction, impediment or danger to the safe and convenient navigation or use of inland water or the landing place or embarking or part thereof, the receiver of wreck or any authorised or appointed officer shall,— (a) if the whereabouts of the owner is identifiable or traceable, immediately inform the owner, of such vessel or property or parts, about his obligation to remove or take possession of the wreck, in such form and manner as may be prescribed by the State Government; or (b) if the owner is unidentifiable or not traceable, cause such vessel or property or part to be raised, removed, blown up or otherwise destroyed, as the circumstances may warrant in such manner as may be prescribed by the State Government. (3) The receiver of wrecks or any officer appointed or authorised thereof, shall record the events of finding, marking, recovery or disposal of wrecks in the official register maintained and shall send a report to the respective State Government. (4) If any property recovered by a receiver of wreck remains unclaimed or the person claiming it fails to pay reasonable expenses incurred for preserving the wreck including an additional amount of twenty-five per cent. of the amount of such expenses, such vessel or property or part may be put to sale by public auction— (a) immediately, if the property is of perishable nature; (b) at any time not less than two months after the recovery thereof, if it is not of a perishable nature.	Duty of receiver of wreck.

	57.(1) The receiver of wreck may remove, or cause to be removed, any timber, raft or other property, floating or being in any part of the inland water, which, in his opinion, obstructs or impedes the free navigation thereof or the lawful use of any landing place or embarking or part thereof. (2) The owner or person responsible for causing any obstruction or impediment, affecting or likely to affect free navigation or the lawful use of any landing place or embarking or part thereof, shall be liable to pay the actual expenses incurred for the removal of such obstruction or impediment. (3) The officer authorised by the Central Government or the State Government, or any magistrate having jurisdiction over the offence may cause any obstruction or impediment referred to in sub-section (1) to be abated. (4) If the owner or any person responsible for causing any such obstruction or impediment, neglects to pay the actual expenses incurred in the removal thereof within one week after demand or within fourteen days, after such removal has been notified by the State Government or in such other manner as the State Government may, by general or special order direct; the receiver of wreck or such other officer may cause such timber, raft or other thing or the materials causing such obstruction or impediment to be removed, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to be sold by public auction and may retain all the expenses of such removal and sale out of the proceeds of the sale.	Removal of obstruction to navigation.
	58. (1) If the property so recovered by a receiver of wreck remains unsold, such property shall be kept and deposited in such manner as the State Government may direct and may, if necessary, from time to time, realise the expenses of keeping the same, together with the expenses of sale, or further sale of so much of the thing or material remaining unsold. (2) The expense and the additional amount as provided in section 56 shall be payable to the receiver of wreck or such other officer, out of the sale proceeds of the property so recovered from inland waters, and the balance shall be paid to the person entitled to the property recovered, or, if no such person appears and claims the balance, shall be held in deposit for payment, without interest, to the person thereafter establishing his right of ownership thereto. (3) No claim beyond twenty-four months from the date of the sale shall be entertained and the same shall be rejected by the receiver of wreck or such other officer. (4) After the period of twenty-four months, the unclaimed amount so deposited under sub-section (2) shall be transferred to the fund	Unsold property and sale proceeds.

	constituted under Chapter XIV of this Act. (5) Where the sale proceeds of the property is not sufficient to meet the expenses and the additional amount receivable as provided in section 56, the owner of the vessel at the time the vessel was wrecked, stranded or sunk shall be liable to pay the deficiency to the receiver of wreck or such other officer on demand, and if the deficiency is not paid within one month of such demand, the receiver of wreck or such other officer, may recover the deficiency from such owner as if it were an arrear of land revenue.
	59. (1) No person shall — (a) board or attempt to board any vessel which is wrecked, stranded or in distress, without the leave of the master, unless such person is, or acts by command or order in writing issued by, the receiver of wreck; or (b) impede or hinder or attempt in any way to impede or hinder the saving of any vessel stranded or in danger of being stranded or otherwise in distress in the inland waters or of any part of the cargo or equipment of the vessel, or of any wreck; or (c) secrete any wreck or deface or obliterate any marks thereon; or (d) wrongfully carry away or remove any part of a vessel stranded or in danger of being stranded or otherwise in distress, in the inland waters, or any part of the cargo or equipment of the vessel or any wreck. (2) Where a receiver of wreck suspects or receives information that the wreck is secreted or is in the possession of some person who had concealed; is not the owner thereof or that any wreck is otherwise improperly dealt with, he may apply to the Judicial Magistrate of the first class or Metropolitan Magistrate, who has jurisdiction over the matter, for a search warrant, and that Magistrate may grant such warrant, and the receiver of wreck by virtue thereof may enter any house or other place and also any vessel and search for, seize and detain any such wreck found therein.	Protecting the wreck.
	60. (1) If any vessel hooks or gets fouled in any of the buoys or moorings laid down by or by the authority of the State Government in any part of inland water, the master or person in-charge of such vessel shall not, nor shall any other person, except in the case of emergency, lift the buoy or mooring for the purpose of unhooking or getting clear from the same without permission in writing from the receiver of wreck or any other officer appointed or authorised in this behalf. (2) The receiver of wreck or any other officer appointed or authorised in this behalf shall, immediately on receiving information of such	Fouling of Government moorings.

	81. When an insurer has issued a certificate of insurance in respect of a contract of insurance between the insurer and the insured person, then— (a) if and so long as the policy described in the certificate has not been issued by the insurer to the insured, the insurer shall, as between himself and any other person except the insured, be deemed to have issued to the insured person a policy of insurance conforming in all respects with the description and particulars stated in such certificate; and (b) if the insurer has issued to the insured the policy described in the certificate, but the actual terms of the policy are less favourable to the person claiming under or by virtue of the policy against the insurer either directly or through the insured than the particulars of the policy as stated in the certificate, the policy shall, as between the insurer and any other person except the insured, be deemed to be in terms conforming in all respects with the particulars stated in the said certificate.	Effect of Certificate of Insurance.
	82. (1) Where a person in whose favour the certificate of insurance has been issued in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter transfers to another person the ownership of the mechanically propelled vessel covered under this Chapter, in respect of which such insurance was taken together with the policy of insurance relating thereto, the certificate of insurance and the policy described in the certificate shall be deemed to have been transferred in favour of the person to whom the mechanically propelled inland vessel is transferred with effect from the date of its transfer. Explanation.—For the removal of doubts, it is hereby clarified that such deemed transfer shall include transfer of rights and liabilities covered under the said certificate of insurance and the policy of insurance. (2) The transferee shall apply within fourteen days from the date of transfer in such form as may be prescribed by the State Government to the insurer for making necessary changes in regard to the fact of transfer in the certificate of insurance and the policy described in the certificate in his favour, and the insurer shall make necessary changes in the certificate and the policy of insurance in regard to the transfer of insurance.	Transfer of certificate of insurance.

	CHAPTER XII CASUALTY AND INVESTIGATION
	83. (1) The State Government, may by notification, appoint officer for the purposes of this Chapter. (2) The owner, operator or master of a mechanically propelled inland vessel, shall give notice of any wreck, abandonment, damage, casualty, accident or loss occurred to or on board such a vessel while in the inland waters, to the officer in-charge of the nearest police station and to the officer appointed and authorised under sub-section (1) by the State Government.	Reporting casualty, accident or wreck.
	84. (1) Whenever any officer as referred to in section 83 receives credible information that a casualty or accident has occurred, or has been directed to conduct an enquiry by the State Government, he may proceed to make a preliminary inquiry into the casualty. (2) An officer appointed by the State Government in this behalf shall, after making a preliminary inquiry, send a report thereof to the State Government. (3) The State Government may, if it is necessary or expedient to have a formal investigation into the facts of any case reported by the authorised officer,— (a) appoint a special court and any such case to make investigation at such place as the State Government may fix in this behalf; or (b) refer such case to any court of Judicial Magistrate of the First Class or the court of any District Magistrate specially empowered to make formal investigation. (4) The officer appointed under this Chapter, may, whether he has made a preliminary inquiry or not, and where the State Government so directs makes reference under sub-section (3), make an application to a court, appointed and constituted hereunder, requesting it to make formal investigation into any matters of plying or usage, accident or casualty, wreck or such events referred in sub-section (2) of section 83 in relation to mechanically propelled inland vessels to which this Act shall apply. (5) If the State Government has reason to believe that there are grounds for charging any master, engineer or engine driver, or any person holding a certificate granted under Chapter V, with incompetency or misconduct, otherwise than in the course of an investigation under this section, it may send a statement of the case to the principal Court of ordinary criminal jurisdiction, or the court of the District Magistrate, at or nearest to the place at which it may be convenient for the parties and witnesses to	Preliminary enquiry and investigation.

	attend, and may direct the court to make an investigation into the charge. (6) The court shall cause the person charged to be furnished with a copy of the statement of the case sent by the State Government, before commencing an investigation under this section.
	85. (1) A court appointed and directed under clause (a) of sub-section (3) of section 84, shall consist of not less than two but not more than four persons, of whom one shall be a Judicial Magistrate of the first class, one shall be a person conversant with maritime affairs or with the navigation of the mechanically propelled inland vessels, and the other or others, if any, shall be conversant with either maritime or mercantile affairs, or with the navigation of mechanically propelled inland vessels. (2) A court making an investigation into any casualty or any other incident referred or directed to it may inquire into,— (a) any charge of incompetency or misconduct arising in the course of the investigation against any person holding a certificate granted under Chapter V of this Act; or (b) any charge of a wrongful act or default causing any events referred to in sub-section (2) of section 83. (3) For the purposes of any investigation under this Chapter, the court making the investigation shall, so far as it relates to compelling the attendance and examination of witnesses, and the production of documents and the regulation of the proceedings, have — (a) if the court is a special court; the same powers as are exercisable by the principal court of ordinary criminal jurisdiction for the place at which the investigation is made; or (b) if the court is a principal court of ordinary criminal jurisdiction or the court of the District Magistrate; the same powers as are exercisable respectively by either court in the exercise of its criminal jurisdiction.	Constitution and powers of court.
	86. (1) For the purposes of investigation under this Chapter, the State Government may appoint and maintain a list of assessors, which may be revised from time to time. (2) The qualifications, criteria and consideration, fees or charges for the assessors, who have experience in the merchant service or in the navigation of the mechanically propelled inland vessels shall be such as may be prescribed by the State Government.	Assessors.

	(3) Where, in the opinion of the court making an investigation under this Chapter, the investigation involves, or likely to involve, any question as to the cancelling or suspension of the certificate of a master, engineer or engine driver, or any person holding a certificate granted under Chapter V, the court shall appoint any number of assessors, from the list of assessors provided to it by the State Government. (4) In every investigation, other than the one specified in sub-section (3), the court may, if it thinks fit, appoint as its assessor, for the purposes of the investigation, any person conversant with the maritime affairs or the navigation of mechanically propelled inland vessels and willing to act as assessor. (5) Every person appointed as an assessor under this section shall attend the investigation and deliver his opinion, to be recorded on the proceedings. (6) Notwithstanding the appointment of assessor under this section, the exercise of any or all powers conferred on the court by this Chapter or any other law for the time being in force shall rest with the court.
	87. (1) The court shall, in the case of every investigation under this Chapter, transmit to the State Government a full report of the conclusions at which it has arrived, together with the evidence recorded and the written opinion of any assessor. (2) The State Government shall, on receipt of the investigation report from the court, cause it to be published in its Official Gazette.	Report by court to State Government.
45 of 1860.	88. (1) Whenever any explosion occurs on board any mechanically propelled inland vessel, the State Government may direct that an investigation into the cause of the explosion be made by such person or persons as it may appoint in this behalf. (2) The person or persons appointed under sub-section (1) may, for the purpose of the investigation, enter any mechanically propelled inland vessel, with all necessary workmen and labourers, and remove any portion of the mechanically propelled inland vessel, or of the machinery thereof, and shall report to the State Government, his or their opinion on the cause of the explosion. (3) Every person making an investigation under this section shall be deemed to be a public servant within the meaning of the Indian Penal Code.	Power to direct investigations into causes of explosions.
	89. (1) A certificate of a master, crew or engineer which has been granted by the State Government under Chapter V of this Act may be	Powers of court subsequent to investigations

	cancelled or suspended— (a) by a court holding a formal investigation into a casualty under this Chapter, if the court finds that the accident or casualty, including loss, stranding or abandonment of, or damage to, any mechanically propelled inland vessel, or loss of life, has been caused by the wrongful act or default of such master or engineer; (b) by a court holding an inquiry under this Chapter into the conduct of the master, or engineer if the court finds that he is incompetent or has been guilty of any gross act of drunkenness, tyranny or other misconduct or in a case of collision has failed to render such assistance or give such information or notice as required under this Act. (2) At the conclusion of the investigation or inquiry, or as soon thereafter as possible, the court shall state in open sitting, the decision to which it may have come with respect to the cancellation or suspension of any certificate and, if suspension is ordered, the period for which the certificate is suspended. (3) Where the court cancels or suspends a certificate, the court shall forward it to the State Government together with the report which it is required by this Chapter to transmit to it. (4) A court specially empowered under this Chapter, may remove the master of any mechanically propelled inland vessel, within his jurisdiction if the removal is shown as necessary to the satisfaction of the court. (5) The court may appoint a new master instead of the one removed, but where the owner, agent or consignee of the mechanically propelled inland vessel is within his jurisdiction, such an appointment shall not be made without the consent of that owner, agent or consignee. (6) The court may also make such order and require such security in respect of the costs of the matter as it may deem fit and necessary.	and inquiry.
	90. (1) Any certificate granted under Chapter V may be suspended or cancelled by the State Government in whose jurisdiction, the certificate was granted or, in the event of the vessel being found in the jurisdiction of another State Government, such State Government may confiscate the certificates, if,— (a) on any investigation made under this Chapter, the court reports that the work or abandonment of, or loss or damage to, any vessel, or loss of life, has been caused by the intentional and wrongful act or default	Power of State Government to suspend, cancel and confiscate certificate.

	of the holder of such certificate, or that the holder of such certificate is incompetent, or has been guilty of any gross act of drunkenness, tyranny or other misconduct; or (b) the holder of such certificate is proved to have been convicted of any non-bailable offence or have committed prohibited acts that are specified under section 100; or (c) the holder of such certificate is proved to have deserted his vessel or has absented himself without leave and without sufficient reason, from his vessel or from his duty; or (d) in the case of a person holding any designation as provided by the certificate of competency or service, is or has become, in the opinion of the State Government, unfit to act in such designation, as the case may be. (2) Every person whose certificate is suspended or cancelled under this Chapter shall deliver it up to such person as the State Government, which suspended or cancelled it, may direct. (3) If any State Government confiscates the certificates granted under Chapter V, the proceedings and the fact of confiscation and recommendation for suspension or cancellation shall be reported to the State Government which has originally issued, granted or endorsed such certificates. (4) The State Government may, at any time, revoke any order of suspension or cancellation which it may have made under this Chapter, or grant a certificate anew, without examination, to any person whose certificate it has so cancelled and such certificate granted anew, shall have the same effect as a certificate of competency granted under this Act after examination.
	CHAPTER XIII REGULATION OF TRADE PRACTICES
	91. The Central Government may, specify the minimum standards, terms and conditions to protect the interests and to ensure safety of service providers and service users that shall be incorporated in the contract entered for carriage or use of inland vessels.	Powers of the Central Government to protect interests of service providers and service users.
	92. (1) The service provider shall properly and carefully, — (a) assist and care for the passengers during embarking, disembarking and the entire course of voyage and preserve their safety with priority.	Obligation of service provider.

	(b) receive, load, handle, stow, carry, keep, care for, unload and deliver the goods in accordance with the contract of carriage. (2) The carriage of cargo and passenger by mechanically propelled inland vessel shall be prescribed by the Central Government. (3) Notwithstanding anything contained in this section, the service provider, during the period of his responsibility, may decline to receive or to load, and may take such other measures as are reasonable, including unloading, destroying, or rendering goods harmless, if the goods are, or reasonably appear likely to become an actual danger to persons, property or the environment. (4) The service provider shall issue the transport documents or electronic records or such documents or records, evidencing the obligations of carriage and other details of instruction and agreed terms and conditions, in a timely manner to the service user: Provided that the service user shall provide the service provider the relevant information requested or required, accurately and timely for the purpose of preparation, compilation and timely issuance of the transport documents or electronic records.
	93. (1) The service user shall provide all reasonable information and instructions, to the service provider and shall guarantee that all the information so disclosed are accurate and made in good faith, as requested by the service provider or required under this Act, for the proper handling and carriage of the goods: Provided that the service user is under no obligation to disclose any information about which he has no knowledge or is within the reasonable knowledge and information of service provider or, if required not to be disclosed under any law, on any written instruction from public authorities. (2) The service user is liable for loss or damage sustained by the service provider, if the service provider proves that such loss or damage was caused by a breach of the obligations of such service user under this Act. (3) The service user shall inform the service provider of the dangerous nature or character of the goods in a timely manner, before they are delivered to the service provider and if he fails to do so, and the service provider does not otherwise have knowledge of their dangerous nature or character; the service user is liable to the service provider for loss or damage resulting or arising from such failure to inform. (4) The service user shall mark or label the dangerous goods in	Obligations of service user.

	accordance with the provisions of the relevant law for the time being in force, or other directives of public authorities that apply, during any stage of the intended carriage of the goods, and if he fails to do so, the service user is liable to the service provider for the loss or damage resulting from such failure.
	94. (1) The service provider is liable for the breach of any of his obligations under this Act, caused by the acts or omissions of any person, including employees, agents and sub-contractors, to whom such service provider has entrusted the performance of any of his obligations. (2) The service provider shall not be held liable for acts or omissions of the service user or any person acting on behalf of the service user, to whom the service user has entrusted the performance of his obligations. (3) Notwithstanding anything contained herein, except with respect to loss or damage caused by a breach of his obligations by the service provider, the service provider is relieved of all or part of his liability, if the cause of the loss or damage is not attributable to his fault or to the fault of any person acting on his behalf. (4) When the service provider is relieved of a part of his liability pursuant to sub-section (3), the service provider shall be held liable only for that part of the loss or damage that is attributable to his fault or to the fault of any person acting on behalf of, or employed by him.	Liability of service provider.
	95. (1) The Central Government shall, by notification, declare the list of dangerous goods that may be carried subject to conditions, as may be prescribed, and prohibited goods that are prohibited from being carried on any class or category of mechanically propelled inland vessels, while plying in the inland waters. (2) Any Service user of a mechanically propelled inland vessel shall not— (a) take with him on board, load, carry, or be permitted to take with him on board, load, carry, any goods declared as prohibited goods under this Chapter; packed or stored in any form or content on board a mechanically propelled inland vessel; or (b) deliver or tender or be permitted to load, deliver or tender any goods declared as prohibited goods under this Chapter; packed or stored in any form or content on board a mechanically propelled inland vessel; or (c) take with him on board a mechanically propelled inland vessel, any dangerous goods without giving notice of their nature to the owner or master of the mechanically propelled inland vessel; or	Prohibited goods and dangerous goods.

2 of 1974. 45 of 1860.	(d) deliver or tender for carriage on such mechanically propelled inland vessel, any dangerous goods without giving such notice, and without distinctly marking their nature, outside the package containing the goods. (3) If the owner or master of a mechanically propelled inland vessel suspects, or has reason to believe, that any luggage, parcel or package stored in any form or content taken, delivered, loaded or tendered, for carriage on a mechanically propelled inland vessel contains prohibited goods or dangerous goods, he may— (a) refuse to carry it upon the mechanically propelled inland vessel; or (b) require it to be opened to ascertain the nature of its contents; or (c) stop its transit until he is satisfied as to the nature of its contents, if it has been received for carriage; (d) report to the nearest police station or any officer appointed or authorised by State Government by notification under this Chapter. (4) Upon receipt of report from the owner or master of any vessel as provided under sub-section (3), the officer appointed or authorised under this Chapter shall confiscate such goods, and refer the matter to be investigated by the police or law enforcement department of the respective State Government, which has jurisdiction over the vessel, and such goods confiscated shall be destroyed, stored or be subjected to judicial sale as may be prescribed by the State Government. (5) Any person who is found to do an act or have done an act in contravention of sub-section (2) shall be handed over or arrested and removed, immediately and charged for an offence for causing danger to vessel and life of passengers or crew in the vessel, and be prosecuted in accordance with the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 and shall be punishable for such offences as provided under the Indian Penal Code. (6) Where any dangerous or prohibited goods has been taken or delivered on board any mechanically propelled inland vessel, in contravention of this Chapter, and if the service provider of such vessel is unable to resort to and comply with the provisions of sub-section (2), such goods shall be unloaded from such vessel or thrown overboard, along with any package or receptacle in which the goods is contained, so as to prevent danger and to ensure safety of such vessel and life on board; and the owner or the master shall not, in respect of his having so caused the goods to be unloaded or thrown overboard, be subject to any liability, civil or criminal, in any Court.
