

Tender for procurement of furniture of Kaladan Project

Sl. No.	Bidders Query	Reply
1	Most of the goods would be exported from India. Import documents required for the same need to be arranged by Embassy, Custom Clearance, Transportation, Loading, unloading, Delivery and Installation would be take care by us at our own expenses.	Import permit for the supplyof furniture should be in the name of MPA ,Govt. of Myanmar(nodal agency). Selected bidder has to apply for import permit in the MPA office and parallely they can apply for relaxation of import duty with the necessary document . These procedure required to be followed well ahead of dispatch of consignment for Myanmar.
2	We believe there would be no custom duties and taxes for the embassy for KMTTP project, still if any Import duty and taxes are levied those would be extra and same would be quoted separately in the price bid of the tender.	Yes, custom duty is exempted as per framework agreement between Govt. of India and Myanmar for the material, equipments etc. imported for Kaladan Project works. However the procedure of Govt. of Myanmar as mentioned in the sl. no.(1) is required to be followed for clearance, and clearance and handling charges as applicable.
3	Items can be supplied for the products available in the market and few of the images / designs in the tender form are outdated but the specifications can be fulfilled. Sample for approval would be shown in Inida, the few choices of different regular standard quality products available in the market would be provided for selection.	May be considered. As the product specification/design/model for these items keep on changing very frequently by the company .
4	Total time required for delivery and installation would be 4 months. (Requesting for one month extra time, in tender form lit is mentioned as 2 + 1 month)	No extension in time for delivery and installation is considered necessary at this stage.
5	Payment time mentioned in tender is 1 month to 3 month after completion of work, if order is placed to us, we request to arrange the payment within one month.	No change in payment clause is considered necessary.
