1. The Objective of the work is to provide and maintain a navigable channel with the help of bandalling and day marking the navigational channel with conventional bamboo & solar navigational marks for day & night navigation and their maintenance in Varanasi - Prayagraj stretch of National Waterway No 1 (river Ganga).
2. National Waterway No. 1: It extends from Rajmahal to Prayagraj (length about 960 km) river Ganga. The river carries floods during month 15 June/July to September months when water hugs both high banks. The lean season in river Ganga extends from month of October to May. There is considerable difference between flood and lean season discharges and water level. The maximum water level difference is about 10 m. The current in the river ranges from 0.5 to 4 m/s. However, the current during the lean season seldom exceeds 1.5 m/s. The bed material along the waterway comprises silt to sand. During lean season many channels are formed of which main channel is to be maintained. In order to maintain 3 m depth in Rajmahal-Barh, 2.5 m depth in Barh-Ghazipur, 2.2 m depth in Ghazipur-Varanasi and Varanasi-Prayagraj 1.50 m with 45 m wide channel (30 m at shoals), temporary river conservancy works bandalling, is required to be adopted to clear off the shoals having depth less than 3.0 m, 2.5 m, 2.2 m and 1.50 m (termed as shoal) respectively. The present tender is invited for execution of this work The information is given in good faith. Tenderers are advised to make their own assessment. No claim due to this information shall be entertained
3. For Erection and maintenance of bandalling, waterway will be in the following reaches:

Sl. No.	Stretch	Distance (in river KM)

4. To facilitate navigation of the vessels, IWAI is executing the scheme for maintenance of navigable channel by providing bandalling and day channel markings and their maintenance. It may be mentioned that the bandalling is resorted to in order to divert water to the main channel wherever the river is braided or width is more, which causes scour of the bed increasing the depth in the channel. For bandalling to be most effective the bandal shall be erected in time and in the appropriate alignment. The general arrangement, specifications and details of the bandal is given in the Enclosure- 2(a), 2(b) and 2(c).
5. The tender for the subject work is being considered for the period mentioned in tender document and further will be extended up to May/June months as per site conditions and as per direction of EIC.

6. The quantity of the items of work to be executed in this tender may change as per the actual assessment of the time to time work requirement and hydrographic condition of the navigation channel. Hence a supplementary directive will be issued by the EIC of the work after the change in the season and before start of the season.
7. IWAI shall initially award the works up to March' 2026, however IWAI reserve the rights to extend the contract for further period of another two years i.e. 2026-27 and 2027-28 by 5% enhancement on each item of rate for each year over the awarded rate of previous year at the same terms and conditions of the contract after getting willingness from the contractor and subject to satisfactorily performance of the works.
8. The amount of tender and tender analysis will be considered only upto March 2026.
